EXT. GARDEN - DAY

LEE (30s) walks down a path. It is surrounded by flowers. Lee takes and sniffs a flower. He looks directly at the camera.

LEE

Hi, my name is Lee Turner, proud
CEO of Green Airlines. Today I am happy to announce to you that we are finally going green!

Lee throws the flower away and continues to walk down the path.

LEE (CONT'D)

Now, it is forbidden to smoke on all of our planes. It is now safe for everyone on board, even for kids! Hooray!

A text appears on screen Green Airlines, Going Green!

INT. AIRPORT / ELEVATOR - DAY

JORDAN (30s) is in an elevator. He looks at his watch and ALEX (30s) walks in. Jordan looks at Alex confused.

JORDAN

Alex?

ALEX

Oh, hey Jordan.

JORDAN

What are you doing at the airport?

ALEX

You're not really asking me this are you? Jordan, it is the fifteenth anniversary of the airline today.

JORDAN

Already?

ALEX

Yep, and to celebrate, Lee wanted us to have our meeting at the airport.

JORDAN

Uh, well since it is a special occasion, you think I could get the support I wanted to get for a while.

Jordan takes his phone.

ALEX

Uh, I wouldn't do that if I were you.

JORDAN

Too late.

Jordan smiles and places the phone on his ear to talk to CUSTOMER SUPPORT (40s).

CUSTOMER SUPPORT

Hello, Green Airlines customer support. What do you want to complain about today you stupid piece of shit?

JORDAN

What...what did you just say to me?

Alex gestures at Jordan to hang up.

CUSTOMER SUPPORT

I would watch what you are saying Jordan Lightfoot living on twenty-three Yellowstone road.

JORDAN

How did you know-

CUSTOMER SUPPORT

Oh my, what a nice dog you have. Oh sorry, I'm getting another call, stay on hold please.

JORDAN

Oh no! Fido! I'm coming for you!

Jordan runs out of the elevator. He stops

JORDAN (CONT'D)
Wait, I don't even have a dog, wait up!

Jordan runs toward the elevator, but the doors shut at the last second.

INT. AIRPORT / MEETING ROOM - DAY

Alex walks in the room. Sitting at the far end is Lee, he is well dressed, next to him is LINDA (30s), she is tall and has huge muscles (basically a bodybuilder), next to her is MARIE (30s), she is dressed casually, and she is holding a NOTEBOOK.

ALEX
Where is David?

LEE
David is outside maintaining the planes. He should be here soon.

Alex places his computer on a desk. He presses on a button and a market chart appears on the screen.

ALEX
I got some good news. As you know, every year the value of the airline has been increasing continuously. And today, for the fifteenth anniversary. We have officially reached one billion dollars!

LEE
What did you just say?

ALEX
We are worth one billion dollars!

Everyone stares at Alex, all quiet. Then everyone cheers. Lee walks in front of the crew and Alex sits down.

LEE
We did it. We finally reached one billion dollars. I know that compared to other airlines, one billion isn't a lot. But compared to them, we started with nothing.

(MORE)

LEE (CONT'D)

It is thanks this amazing team that we manage to get this far. We wouldn't be here today if it weren't for your amazing job at customer support Linda, or David with the love and care he puts into the planes and you Alex, for doing all of the accounting.

Lee takes a cup of water.

LEE (CONT'D)

Cheers to our success!

ALEX & LINDA

Cheers!

MARIE

Hey! What about me?

The camera leaves the room.

LEE

Oh yeah, uhm...

The camera goes in the sky.

INT. AIRPLANE - DAY

PILOT 1 (40s) AND PILOT 2 (40s) are piloting the plane. Pilot 1 presses a button on his headset.

PILOT 1

C-136, nothing to report over.

Pilot 1 releases the button. Pilot 2 sighs. Then several beeps are heard.

PILOT 2

Uhm, is that normal?

PILOT 1

Shit.

PILOT 2

What?

Pilot 1 looks outside, one of the engines is on fire. Pilot 1 and Pilot 2 look at each other scared. Then they both start to laugh hysterically.

INT. MEETING ROOM - DAY

Lee is in front of the crew.

LEE

Uhm, you know Marie, all you ever do around here is taking notes.

MARIE

What do you mean all I ever do is take notes? I've been working my ass off for ten years and this is all you can say about my performance!

Marie throws her cup of water toward Lee. It almost hits Alex and Lee avoids it.

LEE

This is exactly your job Marie, you are a secretary for fuck's sake.

Alex notices something happening outside.

ALEX

Hey guys...

LEE

Not now Alex!

Linda points to the window.

LINDA

What's happening outside?

Lee turns to the window and the crew advances toward it. They see outside that a plane is diving towards the ground. It then makes a loop, and it crashes nose first. But it doesn't explode. The crew sighs in relief.

INT. AIRPLANE - DAY

PILOT 3 (40s) and PILOT 4 (40s) are speeding up to take off. They see in front of them the carcass of the previous plane. They both scream in terror as they are closing in.

EXT. AIRLINE - DAY

The two planes crash into each other. A BIG EXPLOSION occurs, and several flaming debris fly towards other planes. It causes one explosion after another. Soon the whole airport is on fire.

INT. MEETING ROOM - DAY

The crew all stare at the window in shock.

INT. CNNN STATION - NIGHT

The intro of CNNN news plays on the screen. STEVE MORNINGSTAR (50s) and ABIGALE ROSEWOOD (30s) are sitting of front of their desk.

STEVE

Breaking news. Plane crash at the international airport today. A plane belonging to Green Airlines dove right into the ground and another plane who was about to take off crashed right into it.

ABIGALE

Oh my...

STEVE

And that is not all, right before it crashed, the plane did a loop.

ABIGALE

A loop?

STEVE

Yes, let's look at the images captured by a witness.

Images of the plane crash are shown.

ABIGALE

Hold on, Green Airlines hired pilots who don't even know how to actually pilot a plane. What a bunch of incompetents.

STEVE

Yes indeed, but let's switch our attention to John Johnson who is on the scene.

EXT. AIRPORT - DAY

JOHN JOHNSON (mid 20s) is standing with a microphone in his hands. Behind him, several PARAMEDICS (20s to 30s) are attending to the INJURED (20s to 40s).

STEVE (O.S.)

How is it currently looking on the scene John?

JOHN

The situation here is very bad Steve. So far, it has been reported that at least five hundred people died in the accident and there are about two hundred injured.

STEVE (O.S.)

Oh my...

JOHN

But get this, the bodies found in the first carcass were all smiling.

STEVE (O.S.)

Seems like they were having fun in there.

JOHN

They sure did Steve. But I am sure that the managing team of Green Airlines are not smiling right now.
